A note from the 85th Anniversary Committee.....

The NEAFCS 85th Celebration is a stepping stone /marker looking toward our 100th Anniversary. Our desire is to celebrate the past while looking toward the future. In fifteen years where will you be? Where will Extension be? How will NEAFCS look/ behave? As your affiliate celebrates our 85th Anniversary, review the historical information on the NEAFCS website and contemplate our original mission and objectives. How have these aspects of our association changed? What is the same? What is different? How sustainable is NEAFCS?

Affiliate: UTAH

Did you have an affiliate 85th Anniversary Chairman/Committee?

no

How did your affiliate celebrate the 85th?

We had a visit from a fictional character named Barbara Morgan at our in-service and she gave a synopsis of the history of NEAFCS over the years. She was there when NEAFCS was first organized and is amazingly still involved today in the association and still looks quite young for her age.

We also gave everyone a celebratory chocolate from the Utah State University new Aggie Chocolate factory.

How did your affiliate use the NEAFCS history/archives information on our website? (Under About NEAFCS) Which resources did you use?

We used information from this website to piece together the presentation for the character Barbara Morgan (see above) so she could share NEAFCS information throughout the years.

How did you use the NEAFCS Facebook monthly 85th Anniversary tidbits?

I haven't yet—didn't realize they were there. But I'll look for them and share them periodically by email to our affiliate.

How did your affiliate implement the 85 Things to do list as a group /individually?

We handed this out at our association meeting for individuals to choose how they wanted to personally celebrate.
